Report: Session on 'Developing Interview Skills'

To enter the professional world and get a foothold, developing interview skills is highly beneficial. Interviewing skills are one's ability to interact with the employer or interviewer and show them why you are the best-fit candidate for the job role. The IQAC of HVPS's College of Law organised a session on 'Developing Interview Skills' to help students understand that practicing and following certain tips can help enhance one's performance in interviews and predict the situations one might face. The session was conducted on 01 February 2020, from 11 a.m. The lecture helped the participants to learn the importance of effective use of non-verbal cues, verbal communication and staying calm during interviews.

The lecture focussed on how developing interview skills will help showcase one's personality, highlight strengths and leave a positive impression on your potential employer. The session was organised with the support of the principal, Dr. Madhura Kalamkar. The content was designed and delivered by Dr. Jitendra Aherkar.

Outcome:

The students thoroughly understood the significance of developing certain interviewing skills like a positive attitude, honesty, communication, and active listening and how this can influence the hiring decision in one's favour. Students were given demonstrations on entering and exiting an interview, how to sit and face the interviewers and tips to overcome nervousness during interviews. They were also given an idea about the common questions interviewees often encounter during the interviewing process.
