REPORT ON MOOTING SKILLS

On 18th January, 2023, a lecture on "Mooting Skills" was organized for final year students at [SABOO HALL]. The session was conducted by Advocate Krinjal Ahuja, a legal professional with expertise in moot court competitions.

Advocate Krinjal Ahuja commenced the session by elaborating on the significance of moot court competitions in the legal education landscape. She emphasized how participation in moot courts helps students develop critical legal skills such as legal research, case analysis, and oral advocacy, which are indispensable for success in the legal profession.

Throughout the lecture, Adv. Ahuja shared practical tips and strategies for excelling in moot court competitions. She emphasized the importance of thorough legal research, meticulous case preparation, and persuasive oral presentation. Additionally, she provided insights into the nuances of moot court etiquette and decorum, highlighting the importance of professionalism and courtesy in courtroom advocacy.

The lecture also included interactive discussions and Q&A sessions, allowing students to seek clarifications and engage in meaningful dialogue with Adv. Ahuja. Furthermore, Adv. Ahuja shared her personal experiences and anecdotes from moot court competitions, enriching the learning experience for the students. Overall, the lecture on "Mooting Skills" by Advocate Krinjal Ahuja was highly informative and engaging. It provided final year students with valuable insights and practical guidance to enhance their moot court skills and excel in future competitions.

We extend our sincere gratitude to Advocate Krinjal Ahuja for her valuable contribution to the academic and professional development of our students.

OUTCOME:

The mooting skills lecture by Adv. Krinjal Ahuja significantly enhanced the final-year students' understanding of effective legal advocacy. Students gained valuable insights into conducting comprehensive legal research and crafting persuasive arguments. The emphasis on anticipating counterarguments and adhering to courtroom etiquette improved their confidence in moot court scenarios. Practical tips on teamwork and collaboration were particularly beneficial, fostering a sense of preparedness for future legal practice. The interactive Q&A session further clarified complex concepts and provided personalized advice, leaving students better equipped for their legal careers.
