Reports on National Conference on "Extension Education in Rural Communities" dated 22nd December 2018

The Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law and B. L. Amlani College of Commerce & Economics & M. R. Nathwani college of Arts had jointly organized Inter-Disciplinary National Conference on "Extension Education in Rural Communities", held on 22nd December 2018 at MPS Auditorium, HVPS Law College. The main motto behind beholding this conference is to inculcate research aptitude among young researchers and encourage them to intellectually contribute to the process of social transformation.

For the very first time the college has endeavored this initiative of conducting conference on the unique theme of Extension Education as we started DLLE department in our College this year. Our college is also having the same motto to work for the downtrodden section of the society while imparting legal education through our institution. Hindi Vidya Prachar Samiti's College of Law established in the year 2017 with the aim of epitome of knowledge and the highest ideals of legal profession. The college has designed its vision, mission and the goals with an aim of striving for excellence in legal education through the academic structure and facilities for the smooth running of the legal universe that exists for the maintenance of law and order in the society.

The College had invited Dr. Rajeshri Varhadi, Head of the Department of Law, University of Mumbai, as Chief Guest, Dr Kavita Lalchandani, Principal of K.C. Law College, as a Guest of Honor and Dr. Dilip Patil, Head of the DLLE department of University of Mumbai as a key note speaker. The Conference started with the lighting up the lamp ceremony. Our FYBLS student Akshata Dixit sang 'Ganesh Vandana' in order to seek blessings of God for the success of the program. Our Principal Madam, Adv. Madhura Kalamkar delivered welcome speech for all the dignitaries and after that Prof. Amar Salve gave brief introduction of all invitees.

Dr. Rajeshri Varhadi, Head of the Department of Law, University of Mumbai, Chief Guest of the program, in her address praised our college efforts for conducting conference on the theme of "Extension Education in Rural Communities" as it resemble to the motto of DLLE i.e. "Reach the Unreached". Dr. Dilip Patil Head of the DLLE department of University of Mumbai, key note speaker of the Program had spoken about the work of DLLE since its establishment. After Lunch Technical Session started which headed by Dr. Bhatia from Gurunanak College. We received 22 research papers of 25 researchers that show very promising response from the researcher's community to our first conference. In Valedictory session, Dr. Bhatia, Resource person of the technical session gave her review of all presenters and also guided them. The Vote of thanks given by Prof. Amar Salve, conference secretary and program ended with National anthem.
