Report: Session on 'Understanding Barriers to Communication'

Communication being the chief tool of lawyers, understanding the various barriers in the way can help improve client experience and interactions. The IQAC of HVPS's College of Law organised a session on 'Understanding Barriers to Communication' with an aim to introduce students to the various barriers they might encounter during the communication process. The lecture was arranged on 4 October 2018, from 10 a.m. The session helped the participants understand and enumerate the different obstacles in the process of communication i.e., physical, cultural, psychological and language barriers. Students recognised the need to overcome such barriers in communication and were provided with alternatives and tips to avoid them.

The students actively took part in the discussions during the lecture. The session was organised under the guidance of the principal, Dr. Madhura Kalamkar. The content was prepared and delivered by Ms. Asha Selvakumar.

Outcome:

The session was appreciated by the participants as it gave them an opportunity to learn about the obstacles they might encounter during communication with their legal counterparts. It helped to highlight the significance of having empathy and understanding to facilitate smooth communication.
